John Doe was he "angry" with someone and which he didn't said or respond back to my question, but I ~~didn't~~<sup>did not</sup> notice officer John Doe or Det. Doe smell real strong of "Alcohol" and now standing beside me on my left side I notice he was rocking off balance sometimes and looking right in front of him at all the riders waiting for the uptown train to pull into the station and which it did and once the uptown train left the station officer John Doe or Det. John Doe grab me by my black sweat shirt hood under my black jacket right out of my seat from the bench with powerfull force and start dragging me down the platform with my black bag in my right hand and the sametime he dragging me he is also saying get the f---k out of my station I am tired of you no good homeless mother f---r toward the station exit for the streets past 6 poles on the platform up the 18 steps once to the top of steps I said to John Doe my leg and which I fell down, he pick me up with force again

The reason I ask United States District Court
